

REGION 1 CONFERENCE

June 27-29, 2012

GOD MADE MANIFEST: LITURGY Song LIFE

Location: Bethlehem, Pennsylvania

Conference headquarters: Cathedral Church of the Nativity (Episcopal), Bethlehem

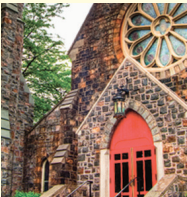

Courtesy: www.littlepocketguide.com

Experience the history and rich musical traditions of Bethlehem, Pennsylvania, founded in the rolling hills south of the Poconos by Moravian settlers on Christmas Eve, 1741, and home to the Moravian Church in North America.

- Browse in the Moravian Bookshop, founded in 1745, the oldest continuously operating bookseller in America

- Enjoy the European atmosphere of Bethlehem's historic downtown
- Participate in a Moravian Lovefeast in the Old Chapel of Central Moravian Church

- Experience stellar organs in historic spaces on a pre-conference organ crawl
- Plenary addresses by Timothy J. Wengert, Ministerium of Pennsylvania Professor, Reformation History, The Lutheran Theological Seminary at Philadelphia

- Workshops on global music, organ registration, Moravian music history, new choral music, and much more

For more information, visit alcm.org and find us on Facebook.